Ask bond vote Nov. 24

Trustees of Bay St. Louis Municipal Separate School System last Thursday voted to ask Commission Council to call for a $1,183,000 school construction bond issue with a tentative election date of Nov. 24.

Board President Robert Hamilton and Superintendent Joe D. McCullough advised the council of their recommendation Monday, but no action was taken pending approval of the bond proposal by Charles and Trauernicht, St. Louis, Mo., bond attorneys.

The $1,183,000 is slightly more than the $1,000,000 bond issue recommended by Associated Consultants in Education, Inc., in its report on the municipal system 18 months ago but includes a $33,900 dressing room facility at Tiger stadium not proposed by the consultants.

If approved by the voters the bond issue would initially require approximately 7 1/2 mills in taxes for financing on a 25-year basis. This millage would be reduced as principal is paid off as required by state law and interest thereby reduced. Also, as property assessments in the school district increase, millage requirements for funding the bonds would reduce.

Major item of new construction proposed is a new high school on the 20 acre site off Blue Meadow Road acquired by the school system last year. In this school will be 27 classrooms, a gymnasium, auditorium, lunchroom with seating capacity of 250, library and vocational training building.

In addition, because completion of the school is anticipated about 18 months before completion of the sewerage and utility improvement program for Bay St. Louis, a $25,000 drainage field is included as well as over $21,000 for water and gas connections. Total cost of the high school completely equipped is estimated at $1,046,199.

At a cost of $72,910 Valena C. Jones School is scheduled to be enlarged by three classrooms, a modern science laboratory and a stage in its gymnasium.

Waveland School will get two modern classrooms with separate toilet facilities and built slightly off center in relation to the present school. It is anticipated that grades one through six will be taught there. At present only the first four grades are handled at this center. The arrangement is being done so that when the pupil load permits the old school can be replaced with a new one, McCullough explained.

Also included in the bond issue is $12,991 estimated for legal fees, advertising and miscellaneous expenses.

MTO staff peaks as 3rd year near

Mississippi Test Operations hit a new high in employment this week as it prepares to celebrate its third birthday this Sunday.

It was Oct. 25, 1961, when selection of the west Hancock County site for static testing rockets for the nation's moon mission was announced by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. Since that time work costing $7,476,044 has been completed on developing the installation while 28 active contracts worth $78,516,100 are now in progress.

By the time MTO's fourth birthday rolls around it should be in the facilities stage, checking out the first S-II test stand which will be the tallest building in Mississippi. Actual hot wiring tests aren't scheduled to start until early 1966 under the present plan.

This week's work force totals 2,667 against the previous high of 2,638 the week of Oct. 6. Of the current total there are 2,159 contractor personnel.

Meanwhile one of the first contractors to arrive at MTO—Raytheon Corp.—is preparing to wind up its operation of the acoustical sounding station Oct. 31 when General Electric Co., support contractor, takes over. Raytheon moved in with an eight-man force on Nov. 1, 1962. GE will use nine persons, including a stenographer, and has seven men now training for the work. The giant horn used for these sound tests went back into operation last Wednesday after repairs.

Oscar Summers who has been press briefings officer for the Corps of Engineers at MTO has been transferred to Beaufort, Ga., as manager of the Sidney Lanier Reservoir there. A successor has not yet been named.

A six-member party of Hancock County officials showed up Monday for a tour of the area, viewing construction in the fee zone and clearing the buffer zone which must be vacated Oct. 31. Only the Logtown School will remain until next spring and the old Flat-top School house will stay in place until after the Nov. 3 election.

Making the tour Monday were Supervisors R.C. Hubbard and Dolph Kellar, Tax Assessor George Heitzmann, Superintendent Robert F. Leiner, and Byron Carter and Bob Hoffman of the state auditors' office.

Oral vaccine clinic ends on Saturday

Only 65 persons ranging in age from two months to 80 years had taken their dose of oral Sabin vaccine Type 1 by 5 p.m. Wednesday at the make-up clinic which opened Sunday in the emergency room of Hancock General Hospital. Twenty-four appeared both Sunday and Monday.

The polio immunization program will continue from 4 to 6 p.m. today and Friday afternoon from noon to 5 p.m. on Saturday at the hospital in an effort to completely eradicate the crippling disease in Hancock County.

Type 2 vaccine will be offered in November and Type 3 in December. All three doses are needed for immunity and should be taken whether or not the person has had shots, the medical society advises.

DeBlanc heads chamber work on school bonds

James C. DeBlanc was appointed Monday night by Chamber of Commerce President Powell Glass, Jr., to work with the municipal school authorities toward getting voter approval of a proposed $1,183,000 bond issue for school construction. This action came after the chamber board approved without dissent the school construction program following School Board President Robert Hamilton's presentation of the construction plans and the need.

The chamber board also set 8 p.m., Nov. 12, at Coast Electric Power Assn. for the annual membership meeting at which five new directors are to be chosen. In addition it scheduled voting on proposed by-law amendments for the same time.

No specific recommendation of by-law changes was passed at the regular meeting. A committee composed of Vice President Joseph L. Marochino and Dix Ashman recommended a change in the number of directors, their method of election and other mostly formal matters. Glass objected strongly to one aspect of the proposed method of election and former president Warren Carver concurred. With only five directors present the board decided to notify the membership that by-law changes would be voted on but without formal board recommendation.

SECRETARIES DAY

Mrs. T.M. Mallini and Mrs. A.E. White of the law firm of Gex and Gex and Phillips and Miss Ursula Favre of Russell and Favre were among 36 legal secretaries on the Gulf Coast observing their annual Day in Court Monday when Judge Leslie B. Grant presided at Harrison County Circuit Court. Jacob Guice, Biloxi attorney, was speaker for the luncheon at noon. Mayors of Bay St. Louis, Biloxi and Gulfport issued a joint proclamation on the day.

FACES CRASH CHARGE

Mrs. Amelia Duplessis, 37, of New Orleans was admitted to Hancock General Hospital for treatment for a broken back after colliding with the rear of a car operated by Connie Broden at 1:30 a.m. Sunday on U.S. 90 near Lakeshore Road.

Another mishap occurred at 8:40 a.m. Monday at Carroll and Necaise Avenues when a 1956 Chevrolet owned by Edwin Storey sustained $300 damages and Vivian Singleton's 1964 Chevy 11 was damaged to the extent of $100 when the two vehicles collided. No physical injuries resulted in either accident.

RECOVER TIRES TAKEN IN NO

Four brand new Volkswagen tires, valued at $200, reported stolen from New Orleans Oct. 14 were recovered in woods off Seminary Drive by City Police Chief Lashon Garriga last Thursday.

Hearings on two traffic accidents will be at 7 p.m. Thursday in Mayor John Scaife's court.

A 1956 Chevrolet driven by Willie Brownlee was involved in collision with a 1959 Rambler operated by Mrs. Albert Biehl at Main Street and Beach Blvd. at 7:40 a.m. Friday. Damages were estimated at $150 to Brownlee's car, and $175 to the Rambler.

Another mishap occurred at 8:40 a.m. Monday at Carroll and Necaise Avenues when a 1956 Chevrolet owned by Edwin Storey sustained $300 damages and Vivian Singleton's 1964 Chevy 11 was damaged to the extent of $100 when the two vehicles collided. No physical injuries resulted in either accident.

"BOOSTING BARRY" - Former U.S. Senator William Knowland of California, speaker for Gulf Coast Republicans' $100 plate fund raising dinner for Barry Goldwater's presidential campaign, chats with Hancock Countyans before feast Tuesday night at Edgewater Gulf Hotel. They are Mrs. Fred Wagner, county GOP vice chairman; Mrs. J.R. Shadoin and Mrs. L.L. Ward. For six years in the Senate Knowland and Lyndon Johnson were counterparts, serving either as majority or minority leader of their respective parties.

School finances yet topic

Another meeting was scheduled for this Saturday by the Hancock County school board to resume consideration of financing school operations and its building program after President E.P. Orte reported last Saturday on his conference with members of the board of supervisors on these topics.

It was indicated that Beat 1 Supervisor H.G. Dean was to consult in the interim with Lucien M. Gex, supervisors' attorney, as to whether the millage voted for 1964-65 could be amended to provide two or three more mills for school operation.

School trustees adopted a resolution agreeing to terms of a note from the county to finance purchase of new school buses and approved payment of bills for September except for telephones at Hancock North Central School pending check on long distance calls and of tuition to the Bay St. Louis system where enrollment is being studied.

Bourgeois heads BJ drive here

$1,000 was donated for minutes when Sidney Bourgeois for for Goldwater, their vote must go to the Republican party, and consequently add to its strength in the state.

The gathering, informal in nature, got underway with each person introducing himself.

Out-of-town representatives were Mrs. Margie Cures, state head of Women for Johnson; Mrs. Julia Bohannon, leading Women of Harrison County; Col. Marvin B. Douglas, USA-ret., of Mississippi City; S. Brooks, Harrison County and Gulf Coast Democratic leader; Luther Patton, Al Woodward, Bill Morjeau, all of Gulfport and Miss Mary Boggs of Long Beach.

Tussell called for nomination from the floor for officers, Sidney Bourgeois of Waveland was elected campaign chairman; Gustave Thomas, vice chairman; Joe Colson, secretary; Harold Carver, finance chairman; Norton Haas, Jr., tri-county representative, and Mrs. Herman Mazarakis, to head Women for Johnson in Hancock County.

Next meeting is at 7:30 p.m. today at the Courthouse.

Khayat to talk at Farm Bureau drive opening

Hancock County Farm Bureau will kick-off its 1965 membership drive with a meeting at 8 p.m. Monday at Hancock North Central High School when Edward Khayat, member of the Jackson County board of supervisors, will be principal speaker.

Khayat will cite accomplishments of the Farm Bureau and explain why a strong organization is beneficial to farmers.

The local bureau's board of directors recently set a quota of 200 members for the coming year, according to Louis J. Breaux of Standard, president. This compares with 166 farm families in 1964.

Karl Goes of Leetown is membership chairman. The drive opened Oct. 15 and will wind up Nov. 10.

Although we realize Bay High gymnasium isn't the place one would choose to appear in a floor length formal or white tie and tails, we understand that quite a few local ladies are planning to trot out their best cocktail dresses and mink stoles when the Philharmonic comes to town. The prospect of this event is causing quite a bit of excitement, aside from the fact that it will inject a bit of culture in an area pretty much starved for such diversion, it's a welcome bit of activity and an excuse for a rash of pre and post-concert parties at a usually dull time of year. Normally things are pretty quiet between Labor Day and Thanksgiving and as just about everyone loves a chance to really dress up and go out, we're expecting everybody who is anybody to be in the audience when New Orleans Philharmonic conductor, Werner Tarkowsky raises his baton at 8:15 p.m. Monday, Nov. 2. And we inject this note for possibly reluctant males, we've seen the program and not relying on our more or less limited knowledge of music, checked with a friend who is an authority on the subject and can assure you that not one really heavy selection will offend brass sensitive ears. . . the music will be musical, which should appeal especially to every parent of teen-agers oversaturated with the current 'yay, yay, yay' records so popular with the younger set.

A bit more on Lady Bird—Bill Kenny was a passenger in the hovering helicopter which preceded the Special and Carl Bandieret wasn't any too happy about the timing of Secret Service men on a Coast Guard boat who suggested he leave the railroad bridge just as the trout began biting!

Neil (Mrs. Eddie) Bourgeois had quite a time hiding Echoes from her bride-to-be sister Jane, between Oct. 4 and 18 as the shower which was given in her honor by Mrs. Kenny Stiefel at Merle (Mrs. Bert) Stiefel's Carroll Avenue home was a complete surprise. It had been planned for Hilda Sunday, Oct. 4, and we mentioned the postponement so all guests would know the correct date. Anyway, she didn't discover anything about the plans, and the affair was a success.

Ailing dogs and shelters

Canine get well wishes go to Tiny Ladner, Lottie's chihuahua who had an eye injury and to Cleo Bradley, Marcella (Mrs. Charles') pooch who is under treatment for an ear infection. We are apparently indebted to Mrs. Inez Dupey for some most interesting literature from the humane society in Terre Haute, Ind., where they obviously have a very active group which in addition to offering shelter, veterinary care and arranging for adoption of stray animals, are also working with schools to teach prevention of cruelty to children from kindergarten up and the community even boasts an official pet cemetery. As our local group continues to amass reams of not-to-dos, the City of Bay St. Louis is in the process of erecting a city pound, has purchased a gun (and don't get excited as your reporter did when informed it was a dog shooting weapon) - it's a very humane instrument as it shoots small drug filled darts which put the animal to sleep long enough for it to be transported to the pound. Stray animals have been picked up in Waveland in the past few weeks, and those in the Bay are in for the same fate. So if you have any affection for your cats or dogs, you'd bet find some way to keep them at home. Fences, dog pens or long chains suffice for canines, but how on earth can a cat be prevented from travelling?

Shamrock club members donned their bright green ties and partook of a brief libation at Frank Trapani's before embarking for their monthly steak dinner last Wednesday night. We had planned to send Harold Carver get well wishes as he looked about ready for a certain building on Union Street Monday and Tuesday, but staged a truly remarkable recovery Wednesday just in time to take in the feed!

On the talent front

Weekly talent shows each Wednesday at the A. and G. theater attract larger crowds with every performance. Roy O'Toole and Herman Hoda (A. and G. owner) have put much effort forth to make it a success and almost solid backing by local merchants furnishes necessary financing. It's enjoyed by young and old alike, and competition is open to any one from 3 to 93 (or younger or older if anyone is so inclined). Third place last week went to Edwin Penton, English instructor at Hancock North Central and Messrs. O'Toole and Hoda will welcome any entries. Application forms are available at the A. and G. The stork seems to have sort of permanently moved in on Hancock County—Pat and Sam Favre are anticipating their second visit from the old bird and Carolyn (Mrs. H.B.) Homes will receive her seventh such visit in November.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurent Kerger have returned from Birmingham, Ala., where they were guests of their son Everett, his wife and small daughter. Everett is now studying for his master's degree at the University of Alabama where he is engaged in the cancer research program. Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gas last weekend was their son Russell, Jr., of New Orleans.

Ferguson, and his majesty, King of Ghouls, Clyde Craig, were crowned with appropriate pointed headgear and presented sceptres in the shape of skull and crossbones. Maids were Anna Gayant, Mrs. Leroy Luke, Ann Craiz, Marion Elliott and Betty Romanoff. Dukes included Joe Benvenuti, Guy Bunkin, Gilbert Gayant, John Wilkerson and Leroy Luke. We're told that Clyde's band furnished really danceable music for the affair. Sorry that Henry Capdepon was a bit under the weather so he and 'Cap' were forced to pass up the party. He must have felt pretty poorly as the Capdepons almost never miss a Legion entertainment.

Cladya (Mrs. Harry) Baxter spent last week in the Crescent City where she visited her cousins Bea and Dolly. A very special happy birthday wish goes to pretty J'don Noto, Jackie and Boo's pride and joy, who cuts her fourth cake today, Thursday, Oct. 22.

They're biting
Grace Bordages has been slaying the specs almost daily in Bayou Caddy just fishing off the banks, and to keep it in the family her father, Garfield Ladner, has been getting from 5 to 11 beauties daily. As for hunting, George Georgi and Harold Zimmermann have almost won their gun barrels out polishing them up in anticipation of dove season.

SJA's annual spaghetti supper at the KC Hall last Thursday night was, as always, a success. Having earned the reputation for delicious cooking, this group serves almost everyone in the area on that night each year.

question?

phone!

When you need a quick answer, reach for the phone. A call to the right person at the right time can save guesswork, perhaps a costly mistake. Your telephone is a good business partner. Dependable. Efficient. Always ready when you need it. Nothing else gives so much service and pleasure at so little cost.

Shower fetes Mrs. Smith

Any Way You Measure It...

Electricity's a bargain

Whatever your standard, electricity is your most valued household servant. It's available 24 hours a day. It reduces time-consuming tasks to mere minutes — or seconds — and it works for pennies a day.

Our average residential customer pays a little more than two cents per kilowatt-hour. That's enough electric power to wash six tubfuls of clothes. They don't make many bargains like that today.

Mashburn-Plunkett vows are spoken in Slidell

Of social note this week is the announcement by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Plunkett of the marriage of their only daughter, Ellen Margaret, to Joseph Patton Mashburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mashburn of Hammond, La.

The religious ceremony took place at 4:45 p.m. Saturday at Our Lady of Lourdes Church in Slidell, La., with the groom's uncle, Rev. Timothy Fugh, pastor, officiating in the presence of the families and a few close friends. A reception followed at the Mashburn home. Miss Winn Heath of Bay St. Louis was maid of honor and Mr. Mashburn was his son's best man.

The couple was married in a civil ceremony June 20 at Louisville, Ky.

After a brief honeymoon at the Broadwater Beach, the bride and groom left for South Bend, Ind., where he will resume his studies at the University of Notre Dame where he is in his senior year. They will reside at 529 West Indiana in that city.

Mrs. Mashburn was a junior lay, at least until all have fallen—and if you must rake, don't burn and destroy the most wonderful source of natural fertilizer available. Pile them up, toss on a few shovels full of dirt and come spring, you'll have the most fabulous flower bed soil just waiting to be used. Burning leaves is not only wasteful, but probably the cause of more fires than any other single source in our area.

Bay and bayou

By HANK EVANS

Went into Al Kingston's tansorial parlor Friday and discovered that the Mississippi Game and Fish Commission had finally come across with the pamphlets describing this year's regulations. This is only three and a half months late for those of us who like to buy our licenses at the proper time and plan our hunting and fishing expeditions a little ahead of time. Furthermore, the delay has been a genuine source of aggravation for those who sell the annual licenses because they could not supply information about changed regulations and this year's various open seasons. Gunners and rodders, who pay what would seem to be adequate fees to enjoy their sports, might do well to ask, "What's wrong in Jackson?"

Weekend fishing was anything but spectacular along the beach-front, apparently because of the below-normal tides, but it didn't stop us from getting out to enjoy the crystal-clear weather. Boy Scouts of Waveland's Troop 210 snagged a few flounder while they were camping out at Jackson Ridge, and Harris Boudreaux pulled in some respectable white trout using dead bait along the sea wall and the bridges.

Saturday night was so pretty that Tut Monti, Don Strong and August Vassalli were lured out to try floundering and mullet fishing. The catch wasn't what they would have liked, but the reported one of the nicest boat rides lately: by moonlight from off the yacht club well up into Jourdan River.

Slaughter-pole specialist Sam Mayer is still sneaking off at every chance. Sam has a secret fresh water hole which will trade a can of worms for a nice string of perch and green trout just about any time he can get there.

If the fishing hasn't been too hot, the shrimping has made up for it. Bobby Strong, along with other commercial shrimpers, enjoyed a good week; Warren Hale started out to catch a few for bait, but the shrimp were so nice that he forgot all about going fishing.

Happy birthday last Saturday to Clayton Seely. It was hard work, but the party finally managed to empty that half-keg.

If you want a free magic show, just hand Joe Sella a piece of rope. Joe can do things with knots that would make an Eagle Scout envious, and he usually gets them untied, too.

Had the pleasure of flying boss-man Red Glass up to Laurel while Mrs. G. was playing in the Miss. amateur golf tournament. There was such a strong headwind on the way up that our 65-horsepower kite could hardly keep up with the cars below; we're afraid Mr. Glass wasn't too impressed with the facilities in a one-passenger airliner, either.

Picture of the week that we didn't take: Frank Trapani so excited over trophy No. 94, the plaque copped by his ladies for topping off in the Bay Belles bowling bout, that he couldn't drive a nail to hang it. Course, the nail wasn't much more than a straight pin, the hammer was a pair of pliers, and Frank couldn't find his glasses as usual.

And to answer all the questions publicly: No, we didn't lose the razor. Yes, we can still afford blades. It's merely the annual winter beard being grown on purpose.

At PCI golf invitational

Bellande, Armstrong win

Mickey Bellande of Biloxi and Mrs. George Armstrong of Moss Point made it two years straight as winners in the 10th annual invitational tournament at Pass Christian Isles Golf Club last weekend.

Bellande finished first in the men's division with a 36-hole score of 146 and won the Glass, Jr., of Bay St. Louis who was women's medalist with an 83 finished with 171 for second place and Mrs. John McDonald, also of the Bay, was third at 172.

In the men's competition results in order of finish in other flights was as follows: First flight—Bill Strobs,

163; John Robson, Dr. John Griffin, both 165; second—Bill

Pass sailors repeat Heaslip race victory

Pass Christian yachtsmen retained possession of the Heaslip Trophy for another year by winning the annual Bay-Pass Regatta 163 3/4 to 145 1/4. The four-race event last weekend at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club, closed out formal fish class contests for the 1964 season.

In the junior division race Saturday, George Byrne of Pass Christian's club skippered to first place while Mike Reeves and Steve Poindexter of Bay-Waveland captured the second and third place boats. Later the same afternoon Bay-Waveland won a first and third in the expert class under skippers Dick Reeves and John Christensen. Mike Rafferty of the Pass was second.

On Sunday Pass Christian took top points in the A race with crews under Patty Guest, Patty Hans and Steve Coker crossing the finish line in that order. The final round, which was the second for experts, saw Mike Pickich pilot his craft in first for PCYC while Bill Reeves and Basil Kennedy placed second and third for Bay-Waveland.

Yellow Jackets sting BHS

A 26-yard scoring pass from Johnny Fanner to Mike Strong, with only 24 seconds remaining in the game, saved Bay High from a shutout at the hands of St. Martin Friday night.

The unbeaten Yellow Jackets, who had been outscored 32-6 in their last game, won their 32-6 victory to hold St. Martin's Gulf Coast trip lead.

St. Martin walked to the goal line almost every time they got their hands on the ball, demonstrating that they are well-versed as top teams in the conference.

Fullback Harold Babcock started for the Yellow Jackets in scoring three of his team's touchdowns and setting up a fourth one run out from the 2-yard line by quarterback Mike Leggett. Don Fontaine played over for the other St. Martin TD and Donald Moore booted two extra points from placement. The lone Tiger tally came shortly after Coach Pat Gardner went in for wholesale substitutions from the Yellow Jacket bench.

With Bay High backs Dick Montoya, Lonnie Schmitt, and Danny Krantzy still sidelined, Coach James Lumpkin could use some more Tiger in his tank before tackling Phil-

Peterson guides Hawks to victory

Perky Eddie Peterson quarterbacked his Hawks of Hancock North Central to a 15-0 win over the Pirates at Pass Christian Friday night. The Hawks' victory edged them to fifth place in the Gulf Coast Conference and left the Pirates in last slot.

After a hard-fought but scoreless first half, Hancock broke loose in the third quarter when Peterson pitched 17 yards to Wendell Ladner for the first blood. Later in the same period HNC guard Eric Larson blocked a Pirate punt which rolled out of the end zone for a safety.

Leading 8-0 but not satisfied, the Hawks capped the final stanza with a sustained drive leading to Peterson's plunging over from a yard out to cut the scoring stripe. A pass from Peterson to Kenny Randall accounted for the extra point.

Coach Ezell Lee will probably be missing Dale and Joel Whitfield and Adron Pouncey for the rest of the season as all three are out with injuries.

But what is left of the team has been showing that it's plenty ready to play ball. Besides

Loop leaders hold position

Standings in the Gulf Coast Conference remained unchanged in the top four slots after last weekend's activity, and there was only minor rearrangement in the bottom five positions. St. Martin continues as top dog with 5-0, trailed by Ocean Springs and Bay High Schools.

In conference games St. Martin beat Bay St. Louis 32-6, Ocean Springs whipped Harrison Central 34-7, Long Beach triumphed 38-12 over Pearl River Central, and Hancock North Central shut out Pass Christian 15-0. In non-conference match Stone was stomped 27-0 by Lumberton.

Jones 11 waltzes over Hattiesburg

Coach Willie Bradley lined up every player on the sidelines except the cheerleaders when the Valens C. Jones grid-dars pounced all over the W.F. Jones 11 Friday at Bay St. Louis. In the 61-6 rout, the visitors from Hattiesburg were allowed their single marker late in the fourth quarter after the VCJ team was out of breath from running up and down the field.

Halfback Martin Collins scored twice in the opening quarter, first on a 36-yard pass from quarterback Robert Whavers and later on a 50-yard run. The extra points were chalked up by Ulysses Sheppard and Whavers.

Collins went into the end zone from 25 yards out to start the second stanza; Edward Weavers ran the point. James Peters accounted for the next TD and Weavers backed it up. Then Whavers twice succeeded in screen pass plays to score Sheppard while Robert Williams ran both extra points to pile up a 42-0 halftime lead.

Linebacker Ronald Atlow got into the third act by scoring on a 55-yard pass interception and Weavers made the conversion. Robert Williams passed to end Alexander Acker for a 55-yard touchdown in the third period and to Weavers for a 51-yarder in the fourth for the last two tallies.

Valens C. Jones has an open date this weekend before visiting Locker High at Wiggins on Oct. 30.
